

Hathor Blockchain

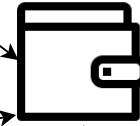

user

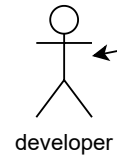

The user interacts with the Hathor blockchain through the Thoth.id web interface and, via this interface, can connect their wallet, create names, change the owner of a name, and set the address it resolves to.

RPC
Communication

Wallet

developer

developer can change the fee for creating names and update the dev_address.

Write (developer only)

thoth_namer contract

@public_methods

create_name

renew_name

change_name_owner

change_resolving_address

@view_methods

resolve_name

validate_name

check_name_existance

check_name_expired

get_name_owner

get_name_ttl

get_dev_address

get_contract_domain

change_fee

change_short_name_multiplier

change_dev_address

Other applications

Other applications will primarily use the Thoth SDK to use view_methods and resolve names, validate them, among other functions.

Wallets and dApps

Thoth SDK

Read